Terms & Conditions

- CBABC Members are not required to complete a Privilege Pass.
- Non-CBA Members may complete and use up to three Privilege Pass forms within two Section terms (Sep - Aug) to attend a Section Meeting/Event.
- One Privilege Pass form admits attendance to one Section Meeting/Event.
- Privilege Passes are not applicable for any CBABC Professional Development Course or Event.
- In the case of limited venue capacity, CBABC Members are given priority.

* Meeting Meal Cost fees are not waived by the use of this Privilege Pass; each registrant is responsible for the full meal cost of a meeting/event if applicable.

If a cancellation request is not received within 4 business days prior to meeting/event date, the registrant is still responsible for full payment.

† The CBABC aspires to help you stay informed about the Canadian legal profession, and participate in matters affecting you and your career. We occasionally send electronic communications with this in mind, including: advocacy work, professional development opportunities, research initiatives and membership information.

If you do not provide consent, we may continue to provide communication as required or permitted by law.

Allow for 2-3 days prior to meeting date for processing.
