

TRANS COMPETENT LAWYERING

Fri, May 1 | 4–6pm PT | Live Webinar

Presenters

Adrienne Smith

Samuel Singer

Want to learn about the key legal issues trans people in BC are currently facing? The topics covered in this live webinar are based on a review of case law, public settlements, research, and policy reports. The scope of legal areas covered will include human rights, criminal, employment, family, access to benefits, and health.

The workshop will also cover the ethical and legal obligations of legal professionals working with trans people. It will discuss how to respect practice management requirements while meeting the needs of trans clients, and provide practical tips for lawyers on working with trans people in BC.

This webinar-only workshop is eligible for 2 hours of CPD, including 1 hour of ethics and practice management.

Register by Apr 29: bit.ly/SOGIC_Webinar

Made possible by:

THE CANADIAN
BAR ASSOCIATION
British Columbia Branch

