Program Description:

Don't miss this unique opportunity to hear from experienced counsel and members of the bench. Obtain expert tips on core issues such as developing an effective strategy, advanced topics including dealing with evidence, objections and difficult witnesses. Develop your confidence and gain mastery of your criminal trial advocacy skills at this program designed for lawyers at all experience levels. Stay for the afternoon learning-by-doing skills workshop where you will conduct mock cross-examinations and jury addresses and receive immediate feedback from our skilled faculty.

Topics include:

- Trial by Judge or Jury: Practical Differences and Strategic Considerations
- Pre-Trial Preparation: Strategies for Success
- Trial Advocacy: Putting Your Best Foot Forward
- Beyond the Basics: Advanced Issues at Trial

The Advocates' Society is a pre-approved CPD provider with The Law Society of British Columbia. Morning program available for up to 3.0 CPD credits. Full day program available for up to 6.5 CPD credits.
